MEMORANDUM FOR MR. PARROTT

SUBJECT: Characteristics of the South Viet-Nam government

1. General Taylor has noted, in a number of Saigon reports, recurring statements related to government personnel in South Viet-Nam. For example:

"Top government personnel are resigning from frustration with the centralized authority"

"There is insufficient administrative talent in South Viet-Nam for effective broadening of the government"

2. He desires information that will put these general statements in better perspective.
